Re: History of Auburn by
Auburn Historical Society 1965

Attn: Edna Dolbeare

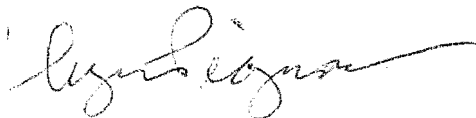

To Whom It May Concern:

As founder of the Auburn Historical Society with the mission of bringing about the celebration of Auburn's Centennial in 1965 and presenting Auburn's history in book form, the goal was accomplished and the Society then dissolved.

Contents of the book was written by several anonymous contributors besides myself, of whom I am sole survivor. Notably the efforts of Mrs. Bertha Penn, Floyd Lorton, Orin Jenkins, Theodore Smith, and Daisy Lochridge Lewis resulted in both oral and written contributions. Special mention is Miss Johnanna Lanham, a teacher in Auburn Schools, who compiled "Old Auburn."

Subject history should be considered as part of the public domain and may be used to promote interest in Auburn in whatever manner the City deems worthy.

Yours truly,

'lyn Pignon
